To Reciprocate.

The confusion is something awful: but we may all fall back on the sound maxim that the way to reciprocate is to reciprocate.—Providence Journal. is the hoarse, startling cough of a child, suddenly attacked by croup. Often it aroused Lewis Chamblin of Manchester, O, (R. R. No. 2), for their four children were greatly subject to croup. "Sometimes in severe attacks." he wrote, "we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup and for coughs, colds or any throat or lung trouble." So do thousands of others. So may you. Asthma, Hay Fever, La Grippe, Whooping Cough, Hemorrhages fly before it. 500 and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold by Lee & Osgood Co.

Attacks School Principal.

A severe attack on school principal, Chas. B. Allen, of Sylvania, Ga. is thus told by him. "For more than three years," he writes, "I suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism, it er and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys. All remedies failed till I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderul remedy cured me completely." Such results are common. Thousands bless them for curing stomach trouble, female complaints, kidney disorders, billiousness, and for new health and vigor. Try them. Only 56c at Lee & Osgood Co.'s. Attacks School Principal.
